

CMP State Directors

Debbie Lyman

Hometown: Meriden, CT

Life Member of Connecticut State Rifle & Revolver Association (“CSRRA”), North American Hunting Club, Women’s Shooting Sports Foundation (“WSSF”), National Wildlife Turkey Federation Women in the Outdoors (“WITO”); and Benefactor Life Member of the National Rifle Association (“NRA”).

Began hunting and shooting competitively in Alaska since 7th Grade; Varsity Rifle Team - University of Alaska.

Member of Middletown Rifle Club and Middlefield Rifle Club.

CSRRA Junior Director 1983—85, 97—2007, 2009--Present; Smallbore Director 1977—85 & 2006-2007, 2009--10; Gallery Match Director 1978—85, 2006--07; and, 2010; Executive Director 1986--87, Editor of the Connecticut Portion of THE MESSAGE 1986--89; 1st Woman President 1987--89; Membership Director 1989--91; Secretary 94—96; and, Director – Education & Training Development 2007--09.

Avid smallbore shooter and seasonal high power and pistol shooter.

Participated in Industrial League for Pistol in 1992--93.

Member of U.S. National Women's Randle Team 1981--84 and 86—89 (Randle Coach in 88 and Captain 89).

NRA Prone & 3-Position Double Distinguished Expert.

Coach/Team Captain of numerous Junior National 3-Position & Prone Championship Teams (latest in 2007 National Matches).

Founder of 3P Air Gun Program in Connecticut and Coached Bronze Team Champions at the 3-Position Air Gun Championship in NC.

Silver Medallion Winner in the 1991 Smallbore Rifle Oceania Games held in Australia.

Holder of numerous National Smallbore Rifle records.

National 3-Position Metallic Sight Woman Champion in 1983.

NRA Official Referee.

Certified Master Hunter Safety Instructor.

CSRRA Hall of Fame.

Shooting Sports Coordinator for Nutmeg State Games and Connecticut State Senior Games 1989—Present.

Connecticut State Junior Director for the Civilian Marksmanship Program (appointed by CMP).

Friends of NRA Grant Author/Writer.

Chairperson for the Ladies Charity Classic™ and Couples Cup Classic™ Handgun Events (1993—2003) sponsored by WSSF and National Shooting Sports Foundation.

Recipient of the Crosman Air Gun “Friend of Youth” Shooting Industry Award in 2009 (1st Female in the history of the award).

Current Assistant Coach for largest indoor junior shooting program (Blue Trail Rifle Range, Wallingford, Connecticut), and advocate for the shooting sports in maintaining rifle shooting as a sport in the local school district.

Certified Member of the NRA/USA Shooting NCDS (National Coach Development Staff).

Member of Board of Directors of Girls Inc and served as Officer in several positions of local parent organizations in the Connecticut schools.

Education: AS in General Studies, AS Business Administration, and BS Business Management.

President of Save Blue Trail Range, Inc.

Employed as Compliance Coordinator at Yale University.

Married, one son (Remington Perry Lyman), attending Ohio State and member of the Varsity Rifle Team.